

I am asking that you please do not allow solicitors the right to call people who have signed the "do not call list". I have finally been able to leave my phone "on the hook" and still have peace and quiet. I pay for phone service so that I can talk to who I want, when I want. Not so I can be bothered every minute of the day!!